WEEK 7

LAST P&C MEETINGS FOR 2022

Please join us tonight at 6.30pm for our last P&C Meeting for the year. The meeting will be held in the school kitchen and everyone is asked to bring a plate to share.

POETRY WEEK

This week we will be celebrating Poetry Week with a number of exciting activities planned for the children. We would like to warmly invite our community to join us for a special evening this Thursday, where we will enjoy a picnic together and listen to a broad range of poems performed by our children and a special guest!

A friendly reminder that all food orders need to be returned by Wednesday November 23 to ensure we have enough for everybody.
